

Job title:	Workshop Engineer	Position type: (E.G. full-time, part-time, permanent, seasonal)	Full Time Permanent 40 hours over a 7 day week
Department:	Front of House	Hybrid working?	No
Location:	National Motor Museum	Driving licence required?	Yes
Salary range:	£30k	Start date:	TBC
Study package avail.?	No	Date posted:	13/11/2024
Travel required?	May be required to attend shows and events with the collection vehicles.	Application cut-off date:	15/12/2024

Reporting lines:

The role reports to the Senior Engineer.

Purpose of the role:

Responsible for the maintenance and repairs of all Museum exhibits and other vehicles as directed. Expected to work as part of a team ensuring safety precautions are adhered to at all times while being accountable for the care, maintenance and inspections of the passenger carrying rides, in accordance with all relevant legislations.

Job description
RESPONSIBILITIES:

- To maintain, repair and restore Museum exhibits and other vehicles as directed.
- Manage and complete H&S documentation
- To maintain and repair Rides & Drives to ADIPS Standards and HSG175 or equivalent.
- To prepare vehicles for events, shows, rallies and hire and attend events as requested.
- To assist in the transportation, delivery and collection of vehicles for events, shows and rallies etc including accompanying the vehicles as directed.
- To drive vehicles for film work, hire etc
- To assist and work with the Curatorial and Learning Team of the NMMT to deliver the exhibits and relocation of the vehicles as part of the temporary displays and permanent exhibitions.
- Engage with museum audiences when required to provide information on the collection and its conservation to members of the public, employees or other parties.
- To undertake any other reasonable tasks as requested by the Senior Engineer or Museum Technical & Operations Manager. This may involve working outside normal working hours.

SKILLS REQUIRED:

- Apprentice trained motor vehicle mechanic
- Experience with heritage motor vehicles is essential
- City and Guilds / IMI qualified or equivalent
- Full UK Driving License
- Knowledge and practice of safe working in a vehicle workshop setting, including manual handling
- Physically able to facilitate the movement of vehicles with the assistance of other team members
- Ability to work as part of a team and on your own
- Good time management

- Excellent communication skills
- The ability to work under pressure during busy periods
- Fabrication and bodywork skills would be advantageous

Reviewed by:	LG	Date:	13/11/2024
Approved by:	JT	Date:	13/11/2024
Last updated by:	LG	Date/Time:	13/11/2024